ISSHO, COME TOGETHER

Occupying a prime site across the rooftop space in Leeds' Victoria Gate, Issho is set to be one of 2017's most exciting restaurant launches. The restaurant and menu will bring a whole new dining experience with modern and exquisite Japanese cuisine.

Executive Chef Ben Orpwood, previously of Zuma and Sexy Fish in London, has created vibrant, authentic dishes with focus stretching from the Robata grill to the sushi counter, with tasty additions like bao buns.

Issho is committed to offering something different and unique to Leeds.

Combining exceptional service, high quality food, unique menus and a stunning, relaxing setting, Issho is the place to come together for a truly unique dining experience.
