What do you get when a Pink Gorilla walks through a Red Door armed with a Hairy Lemon? A darn good launch party, that's what!

Yes, we are currently working closely with Red Door, who are opening-up in the site formerly known as Hirst's Yard at the end of August.

Hot on the heels of their show stopping bars in Liverpool and Chester which have fast become celebrity magnets, they will be bringing their unique party vibes to Call Lane armed with a box of party tunes and some mighty fine cocktails. Watch this space for further details of the launch party, it's gonna be big.

A bite of the Big Apple

Meanwhile, we're still buzzing from some of the biggest and best parties Leeds has seen in 2017. And as far as launches go, they don't get much better than D&D London's second rooftop venue, East 59th. They kicked off with a restaurant soft launch week where lucky guests could sample their New York City inspired food and drink menu, and then threw a lavish VIP party to show this city just what they could do.

And, as if free-flowing Moët Ice, cocktails and oysters wasn't enough, TOWIE stunner Lauren Pope dropped in to perform a glittering funky house set accompanied by a virtuoso saxophonist. It was a night to remember and a fabulous way to showcase their red-hot upcoming events. You can also enjoy bottomless Prosecco and Bloody Mary's every Saturday and Sunday with their fantastic brunch offering. You need to check this place out: the terrace is off-the-scale.

Three is the magic number

They say time flies when you're having fun, and we can't believe it's been three years since we first started working with Roxy Lanes! They threw a party like only they can at the end of July, which featured awesome pizza creations, beer, cocktails, beer pong and of course, a bowling tournament. Kevin Black, the lucky winner of the tournament, was rewarded with a free party for 10. Needless to say he was quite literally bowled over with his prize!

The Cocktail Experience

After the sell-out success of our 2nd Cocktail Experience event, we're pleased to announce that our third event is coming your way in October. As well as teaming up with the likes of East 59th, Issho, Vice & Virtue and Revolución de Cuba to create Leeds' most enviable cocktail menu, you can expect hot tracks, first class entertainment and a few surprises. What else would you expect from the city's hottest party?

Until next time, fix up, look sharp and stay happy people!
