Issho Restaurant launch, Victoria Gate, Leeds

Restaurant group D&D London celebrated the launch of its new Japanese rooftop restaurant Issho, Leeds, with a grand opening party complete with traditional Japanese drummers and a sake barrel breaking ceremony. Guests including the Lord Mayor of Leeds, Councillor Jane Dowson, members of the Emmerdale cast and local football and rugby players sampled authentic Japanese food with champagne and cocktails and were treated to traditional entertainment including the Kagami-biraki, or the breaking open of the sake barrel, which is believed to bring good luck.
